Re: United States v. Colasuonno, No. 21 Civ. 10877 (PMH)

Dear Judge Halpern:

This Office represents the United States of America (the “Government”), in the above-referenced action brought against Philip Colasuonno (“Defendant”). I write respectfully pursuant to Part 1.C of the Court’s Individual Practices to request an adjournment of the initial pretrial conference currently scheduled for May 4, 2022, at 2:30 p.m. on account of a conflict with oral argument before the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. This is the Government’s first request for an adjournment of the conference, and Defendant consents to this application.

On February 18, 2022, the Court issued a notice of initial conference for May 4, 2022, at 2:30 p.m. Dkt. No. 8. On March 18, 2022, I received notice from the Second Circuit that oral argument in the matter of Ward v. United States, No. 21-2648, has been calendared for oral argument on May 4, 2022, at 2:00 p.m. Pursuant to 2d Cir. Rule 34.1(a), I had previously indicated my dates of availability for oral argument to the Second Circuit on February 7, 2022, prior to the scheduling of the initial conference in this matter.

Because of the conflict between oral argument in the Ward matter and the initial conference in this matter, the Government respectfully requests that the Court adjourn the initial conference. The parties have conferred, and counsel for the parties are generally available on May 5, 9, and 10, if the Court is available.

Accordingly, we respectfully request that the Court adjourn the initial conference on May 4, 2022, to a date convenient to the Court and to the parties. Defendant consents to this request. No other deadlines would be affected by the requested extension.

The Honorable Philip M. Halpern

We thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

Southern District of New York
